Caring Community Presents Creating Successful Transitions: Maintaining Quality of Life in Later Years

Wednesday, May 10
6:30–8:30 pm

Round-table discussion on strategies and resources.
Share stories, successes,
and challenges.

For more information or to RSVP, please email
caring@sholom.org.

Playdate in the Park

with Rabbi Lisa Delson

Join in for fun on Shabbat afternoon with Rabbi Delson and her family. Bring your own snacks and blanket. Get to know other PTS families with young kids (0-5 years old).

May 20, 4–5:30pm,
Village Park, Burlingame

CALLING ALL BABY BOOMERS

You're invited to an evening of connection for our generation only. We'll share our stories and begin a conversation about PTS' role in Boomers' lives.

Thursday, May 18, 7pm

Party Palooza might sound complicated, but it's not. Here's a handy four-step guide.

YOU'RE INVITED TO A PARTY, THEN MORE

Ready for the party that keeps on partying? On May 13, start your evening
out with light appetizers
and drinks with your PTS
community.

Then the real fun starts...

1

WHAT'S 'PARTY PALOOZA'?

At Party Palooza, you'll find people at PTS who share your interests while supporting Youth Education.
How? May 13 is a big party to find other parties (and meet people who like the same stuff you do).

2

PICK A PARTY

Hosts of future parties will whet your appetite and sell spots at their shindigs. Some are for adults, like Pub Trivia Night or Sephardic Brunch.
Others are for families,
like Allison's Awesome
Scavenger Hunt & Movie
Night™.

3

FUN NOW + PLANS FOR NEXT TIME

It's not a drag when the party's over. Have a blast, and leave knowing you've got more good times ahead.
(And feel great knowing your support for education at PTS
is an investment in our Jewish future.)

4

The party happens May 13.
Get your tickets now at sholom.org.

The Peninsula Temple Sholom
Confirmation class of 2017/5777
invites you to celebrate Shabbat with them at their confirmation service.

Friday, June 2, 7pm

A congratulatory reception will follow.

May 30

7 – 9pm

a Shavuot celebration featuring a short evening festival service, decadent ice cream sundaes, and study + conversation with the rabbis

THE PTS ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting is an opportunity to add your voice to the congregational conversation. It's also a chance to get the inside scoop, ask questions, and learn more about what's new at PTS since last June.

June 4, 2017, 9:30am
(Brunch served at 9am.)

STAFFING UPDATE:
Welcome Gina Quadrelli,
Clergy Executive Assistant

All of us at PTS are excited to welcome the latest addition to the temple's administrative
staff: Gina Quadrelli, who recently became executive assistant to our clergy.

A Bay Area native,
Gina is married to her high-school sweetheart, Richard. They share their San Carlos home with their two children, Joseph (17) and Keikelani (12), and their Siberian Husky, Spirit. She's passionate about her volunteer work with senior citizens and animal rescue. She also loves the outdoors, especially the High Sierras.

Among other things, Gina helps manage the clergy's schedules and coordinates many aspects of funeral and b'nai mitzvah planning.
